Communities of Interest - Description from Districtr of our Community Map

● Westerville City School District

This map was created by eight members of Sustainable Westerville, and encompasses the Greater Westerville Area which is approximately the Westerville City School District. This is the area that Sustainable Westerville considers their community.

The community shares many things including the Westerville Library. What brings people together is the schools. But many students in the southern portion do not identify with the Uptown and Uptown events such as 4th Friday. There is considerable diversity in SES (socioeconomic status). Higher income in northern areas. Many churches and places of worship.

Policy Concerns: Affordable housing (truly affordable). Representation of all constituents in this area. Equity. Sustainability. Diversity. Inclusion. Access to resources and facilities, programming. Not a lot of diversity in Uptown. Officials need to listen to students. Policing. Physical barriers to green space such as highways. Bike trails under highways don't feel safe and get flooded. Access to grocery stores below Rt. 270 in southwest corner. Food insecurity. Public transportation issues - maintaining bike paths.

What we love about our community - diversity is improving. Can see the past - still have a few old barns (Everal Barn). Parks are dotted throughout - Inniswood, City Parks, Hoover. Best of small town.

Outdoor recreation, bike trails. School district. Easy access to health care and necessary services. Restaurants. (But a question is: does everyone in our community feel these things are accessible to them.)

Re: Council Manager system:

On January 1, 1916, Westerville became the first village in Ohio to adopt a Council Manager form of government. following a July 31, 1915 poll in which Westerville voters decisively voted by a nearly two to one margin in favor of such.

Re: City Charter: (from the City's web page)

In 1964, Westerville Residents adopted a Home Rule Charter, which gives the municipal government greater local control and flexibility than the statutory form. Ohio statute governs only on matters which Westerville's Charter does not address.

Sustainable Westerville is a group of local citizens who are interested in working together on initiatives that improve the spaces in which we live, work, learn, and play. We advocate for the three legs of sustainability: social, economic, and environmental. Find us at sustainablewesterville.org and @sustainablewesterville on Instagram and Facebook. This map shows the approximate area of Westerville City School District.
