INFORMATION

LOCATION

1819 Innovation Hub is located at 2900 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45206. It is a four story building of yellow brick with a dramatic glass wall at the north and a distinctive tower on the Reading Road side.

It is on the SE corner of Reading and Lincoln, one block south of Martin Luther King Drive (Lincoln is called University on the west side of Reading).

VISITOR PARKING

Parking for events is available in the fenced lot immediately south of the 1819 Innovation Hub on Reading Road. Entrance to this lot is at the center of the fence along Reading and parkers should use the north end of the lot, the end nearest 1819. Enter the building though the south entrance. Parking in this lot is free for event attendees.

DIRECTIONS

Interstate - 71 from the North or South

Interstate - 75 from the North or South
Take I-75 to Hopple Street (Exit 3) and turn east (left if coming from the north, right if coming from the south). Hopple becomes Martin Luther King Drive. Proceed east on Martin Luther King Drive for approximately two miles, past the main campus of the University of Cincinnati to Reading Road. Turn south (right) for one block to Lincoln (marked as University Avenue on the right). The 1819 Innovation Hub is across the intersection and on your left. Turn left and proceed one block to access parking on Winslow Avenue behind the building.

Interstate - 74 from the West
Take I-74 to I-75 south. Proceed south to Hopple Street (Exit 3) and turn east (left when from the north). Hopple becomes Martin Luther King Drive almost immediately. Proceed east on Martin Luther King Drive for approximately two miles, past the main campus of the University to Reading Road. Turn south (right) for one block to Lincoln (marked as University Avenue on the right). The 1819 Innovation Hub is across the intersection and on your left. Turn left to access parking on Winslow Avenue behind the building.

US 50 from the East
From US 50 westbound turn right (west) onto Taft Road and proceed approximately two miles, crossing I-71 just before reaching Reading Road. Turn north (right) onto Reading and proceed two blocks to Lincoln Avenue on your right - you are at the 1819 Innovation Hub. Turn right and proceed one block to access parking on Winslow Avenue behind the building.
